Today we are thrilled to announce the addition of Flint Eastwood and Yoshi Flower to the Princess Nokia show on June 29.

On July 22 joining Raphael Saadiq will be Flint's own, Tunde Olaniran, and legend Ali Shaheed Muhammad of A Tribe Called Quest. Purchase tickets here!

Super stoked to have collective Video7 here on August 24 supporting Low Cut Connie and Tank + The Bangas!

And closing it out on September 28, will be the one and only Protomartyr alongside Deerhunter. Purchase tickets here!

Summer at the Mobile Homestead is our way of bringing some of our favorite bands to fans right here in Detroit. The experience couldn't be more idyllic — the stage sits on the lawn of the MOCAD, adjacent to Mike Kelley's Mobile Homestead. Sprawl out on the lawn and soak up the magic of the evening.

This series is produced by El Club and MOCAD. In addition to music, the museum will be open late, and there will be a hearty roster of local food vendors, craft vendors, and more surprises.

Check out the series line-up below and start planning your summer of music! All shows are all ages and shows will go on rain or shine. Parking is available but limited to the street, so we recommend carpooling if you can.

NO FEE TICKETS AVAILABLE AT EL CLUB OR MOCAD! Stop by the museum, to check out the galleries and save on ticket fees. MOCAD is located at 4454 Woodward Ave. at Garfield St. in Detroit. Our parking lot is accessible from Garfield Street and is free and directly adjacent, to the building. Tickets to the concert series are $23 for MOCAD Members!

The Museum of Contemporary Art Detroit (MOCAD) is an innovative addition to Detroit's vibrant Midtown neighborhood, and functions as a hub for the exploration of emerging ideas in the contemporary arts. As a non-collecting institution, MOCAD is responsive to the cultural content of our time, fueling crucial dialogue, collaboration, and public engagement. The Museum is located between the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and the Detroit Institute of the Arts, Wayne State University, and the College for Creative Studies. The cavernous 22,000 square foot building, a former auto dealership, has been simply renovated to maintain its raw historic character. MOCAD's ambitious series of public programs includes lectures, musical performances, films, literary readings and educational activities for area youth. Mobile Homestead, by late artist Mike Kelley, is a permanent art work located on the grounds of the Museum. It is both a public sculpture and a private, personal construction – based on the artist's childhood home on Palmer Road in Westland. The ground floor serves as a community event space by and for a diverse public, as Kelley intended. MOCAD is generously supported by individual members, private and corporate foundations, and government agencies. More information can be found at mocadetroit.org.
